DR. FOOTE, SENIOR

OF 120 LEXINGTON AVENUE, NEW YORK.

HEREBY CAUTIONS THE PUBLIC

NOT to employ or communicate with a man styling himself "Dr. Foote, Jr.," without making due inquiry.

This man came to Salt Lake City representing himself as the son of Dr. E. B. Foote, of New York, the well-known specialist, an attorney-at-law, and a man of high standing in New York City. He came from Dubois and Montana from an exposure made there, he changed his name and represented himself as the son of a more noted specialist in New York City than Dr. E. B. Foote, the well-known author. Mr. John F. Taylor, of the well-known "Troy's Directory," in New York City (forty years in the directory business), Ex-Governor FRANK FULLER, of Utah, and the Hon. ABRAHAM WALKER, for many years Postmaster in New York City, also secretary of the Post, gave their affidavits that there are no other doctors in New York by the name of Foote or Foote, excepting Dr. E. B. Foote, the author of "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr.
E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. HENRY T. Foote.
The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will hereafter always employ the initials, E. B., in designating his name. Hereafter he has been known not only at home but wherever his publications have been circulated, by the name of Dr. Foote, Jr. Greater care will be taken hereafter, in view of the fact that an unprincipled person has assumed to pose by his and his father's reputation.

Those desiring further and more detailed information in respect to this matter, will receive it by addressing Box 414, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Persons having information of advantage to patients, will kindly communicate the same to J. W. Ivey, with Sutherland & Mc-Bride, Salt Lake City.

Those desiring to consult Dr. Foote, Jr., professionally or to order remedies should address either

Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Sr., or

Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Jr.,

120 Lexington Ave., New York.

Elephant—Etc.

Congressional Review.

WASHINGTON, December 13.—Four hundred and seventy bills and joint resolutions have been introduced in the Senate, but only two committees have held their first meeting, and no measures have been reported back to the Senate, and no calendar has therefore been made. Beyond the probable passage of the Presidential succession bill, to be reported on Monday, and the adoption of Frye's resolution embodying a code of joint rules, no programme for legislative business during the week can be indicated. Four hundred and sixty-six nominations have been sent to the Senate, and many of them will probably be reported at the first executive session. A considerable portion of the latter half of the week is likely to be spent with closed doors.

Although the committee on the rules of the House has completed its labor of formulating a new code of rules for the government of the House and will submit its report tomorrow, it is not thought probable the discussion will then be begun. It is expected the debate will be postponed until Tuesday, in order that members may have an opportunity to see the proposed revision in print. There is a desire on the part of many members to have a call of States on Monday for the introduction of bills for reference to appropriate committees when appointed, and in deference to his desire it was informally agreed by members of the committee on rules, yesterday, to make no opposition to such a call.
There are, however, members of the House who express an intention to oppose the introduction of bills until the House shall have finally determined, by vote on the Morrison code, the jurisdiction of various committees, and who hold it to be useless to inundate the Speaker's table with a flood of bills till some proper outlet is provided for them. As the House is not governed at present by any definite system of rules, these members contend that it will require unanimous consent to order a call and assert that this cannot be obtained.
The discussion will consume the remainder of the week and the contest over the scheme to distribute the labor of the appropriations committee promises to be sharp and interesting. There is talk of an adjournment for the holiday recess before the end of the week, but no definite plans have been arranged and it is probable the adjournment will not be reached until the week following.

The War.

St. PETERSBURG, December 13.—Russia has made overtures to Prince Alexander, offering to assent to a personal union of Bulgaria and Roumelia, on condition that the policy of Bulgaria be subordinated to Russia's policy. Russian agents are actively intriguing at Belgrade, to dethrone Milan, in favor of Karageorgiev.

LONDON, December 14.—The report in a dispatch from Belgrade on Saturday, that a bloody engagement had occurred at Veliki Isvor, between two battalions of Bulgarians and a body of Servians, in which the former were scattered, leaving many dead and wounded and the town itself captured, lacks confirmation and is generally discredited.

PHILADELPHIA, December 14.—Prince Alexander announces his readiness to receive Madjid Pasha as envoy of Turkey, and the latter has left Constantinople for this city.

Indian Claims.

WASHINGTON, December 14.—The Assistant Attorney-General has delivered the following opinion of interest to claimants for Indian depredations:

"In order to entitle any claim for Indian depredations to be investigated in pursuance to the provisions of the act of March 3d, 1855, such claim must either have originated since the revised statutes repealing the three years limitation of 1834, went into operation, or else, if it originated before that time it must have been presented within three years after the commission of the injury, which constitutes the basis of said claim."

There are about 4,000 of these claims, representing about $10,000,000.

Colonizing Negroes.

GALVESTON, Tex., December 13.—A Dallas special to the News says: "Prof.
S. H. Withers, colored principal of Dallas colored school, has undertaken a project looking to the colonization of about 2,000 colored families in Brazoria County, Texas. The plan is to purchase 100,000 acres and divide the same into fifty-acre farms. He has many applications for land from southern points."

The Sacred White Elephant.

LONDON, December 14.—Advices from Mandaly state that the sacred white elephant is dead. The customary ceremony of keeping the body lying in state for three days was prevented by British officials owing to sanitary reasons. The funeral was attended by an enormous crowd.

Appointment.

WASHINGTON, December 14.—The President sent in the name of Charles R. Vaughn for postmaster at St. Helena, California.

Your Life is at Stake.

There is no question about it. Whoever neglects a cough or cold, does so at the risk of his or her life. To-day it may be easily controlled; next week the lungs may be full of tubercles. Think of this. Do not wilfully rush to a consumptive's grave. Remember that a few doses of "Hale's Honey of Hore-hound and Tar" will cure any cold or cough, if taken early enough. Remember, also, that there is a crisis when all medication is "too late! too late!" Sold by druggists at 50c. and $1. the large size being much the cheapest.
